FOODBORNE ILLNESS FACT SHEET

Criteria	3 Points – Accomplished	2 Points – Developing	1 Point – Beginning
Information	Contains significant & accurate information; defined illness, described causes & prevention	Most of the information is relevant & accurate; missing one of the required components	Lacking relevant information, several errors in accuracy, missing two or more of the required components	8 =_____
Impact	Effectively communicates all necessary information; understandable & interesting, holds reader's attention	Communicates message; generally understandable & holds reader's attention most of the time	Fails to communicate necessary information; difficult to understand & fails to hold reader's attention	6 =_____
References	Utilized at least 3 sources, properly cited	Utilized at least 2 sources, mostly cited correctly	Utilized only 1 source, sources not cited or cited incorrectly	2 =_____
Design	Clear organization, logical order	Fairly clear organization, has a sense of coherence	Appears cluttered or disorganized, seems like a random collection of information	4 =_____
Graphics: pictures, drawings, diagrams, graphs, etc.	Graphics are skillfully done & add greatly to the clarity & visual impact	Graphics are clear & neatly done & add to overall quality	Graphics are missing, sloppily done, or unclear & detract from the overall quality	4 =_____
Mechanics & Format: spelling, grammar, punctuation	No major errors and minor errors do not interfere with the message; one-sided 8" x 11" page	A few major errors & other errors do not interfere significantly with message; one-sided 8" x 11" page	Errors are numerous & make the fact sheet difficult to understand; utilized incorrect sized paper	2 =_____
Cooperation	Partners worked well together, all gave input & contributed to project, stayed on task when given time to work	Partners worked well together, most gave input & contributed to project, usually stayed on task when given time to work	Partners had difficulty working together, limited amount of input & contribution to project, unable to stay on task when given time to work	4 =_____

Total points _____ /30 points