"SUPER SIZE ME" Film Notes
Everything's bigger in America
million Americans are overweight or obese
% of all United States adults are obese
obesity has since 1980and,
as many children are overweight.
is the fattest state.
Today, families eat out
obesity isnd only to smoking as a cause of death
there are related deaths per year.
Each day, in Americans visits a fast food restaurant.
McDonalds operates "joints" (retail outlets) and feeds
million people worldwide.
In the U.S., McDonalds accounts for % of fast food market.
What happens to the filmmaker when he eats nothing but McDonald's food for 30 days?

America has an obesity epidemic. Why? Partly, because the United States has had a fast food habit for approximately sixty-five years. With the help of Morgan Spurlock, investigate the influence of fast food, cost-cutting policies, corporate responsibility, and poor nutrition education on the health of our citizens:

Policies and practices that harm the health of Americans	